SECTION IV Tell us the net worth of you and your dependents

In this section, we ask you to give us specific information about your net worth and the net worth of your dependents. You will need to enter this information in the tables on page 3.

You must include all assets in your net worth except those items you use everyday (See definition of net worth below.)
 You should subtract from the market value of your real estate any amounts that you owe on it (such as mortgages, liens, etc.)
 You can subtract mortgages on any property, and the value of the house or part of a building that you live in as your primary residence.
 You can report farms or buildings that you or a dependent own by reporting its value as "real property."

Definitions:
 Net worth is the market value of all interest and rights in any kind of property less any mortgages or other claims against the property. However, net worth does not include the house you live in or a reasonable area of land it sits on. Net worth also does not include the value of personal things you use everyday like your vehicle, clothing, and furniture.

VA cannot pay you pension if your net worth is sizeable.

Go to Page 3 and fill out the table.
